

Calling Card Distributor program

Becoming a Calling Card Distributor and start earning high commissions is one of the fastest ways to develop your own telecom business. Aianna provides distributor with printed calling cards, competitive rates/minutes on wholesale prepaid calling cards, instant commission (variable depending on the rates), and easy to access CallerID (also known as ANI or CLI) trigger numbers in Europe and in the USA.

Calling Cards (minimum of 1,000 cards) are shipped to the distributor with inactive PINs (no risk of fraud). Upon receipt of the cards the distributor may decide to activate PINs with total retail value up to total available distributor funds.

If you want to create your own calling card PINs, manage your own retail rates and want to purchase minutes in wholesale, then please go to our Private Label Reseller program page to view available options.
